

My dear friend,

You will no doubt be interested in knowing that I have not forgot my promise as to an "exchange" of likenesses. - I will mail herewith the latest. -

In my hurry on Monday last, the dear German friends were neglected; but on Tuesday, a list order was mailed to Mr. Whittelsey with full instructions and specifications. - I am anxious to know if the provender reached its destination. -

The week at home passed so rapidly, (that) I scarcely can realize that home has been visited; it seemed hard to look and see three months ahead away at school. But, I assure you they are happy days and days full of sunshine and happiness.

Never, before did I have such a desire to do good, faithful work, and never has a ^{first} week of a term opened with such success. I am just beginning to realize that this is my last term here and then who can tell what will be the best thing to do? Time is a great factor!

Later. Saturday P.M.
Since writing the foregoing it has been my privilege to listen to the "Amcrist Glee and Banjo Club," who it seems, - are all younger men and with less musical discipline than the Oberlin Club. - But Anginette and myself had a very enjoyable time that evening on the whole, - for we gave the Amcrist boys a reception and served them with a nice spread. - It was my pleasure to meet a Mr. Porter, who said he roomed in the very same house with Leicester. - at Amherst; it really seemed good to learn of Les. - so directly. -

On the whole a far better treat was to listen to "Lillian Nordica", the soprano soloist, whom you have not doubt listened to. She sang with quite an amount of expression but with an exceedingly clear, "bell like," tone.
It did me good all over to hear her. -

I trust I was not deceived; as I was with the Oak Park Baptist "Tenor" - not long since. -

Since writing, a letter has been received from brother Willoughby, saying you go South on Tuesday. -

Believe me, you and your mother have my best wishes for a pleasant and profitable journey. -

Should enjoy hearing from you while in an other clime, where the green Virginian hills will echo forth much poetical thought.

Ever a true friend, -
